Final Project

My understanding of the Declaration had kind of changed because I didn't know that all these people from the colonies came together to sign it and talk about it.

I think this is an example of good work. Honestly, I think I could've done a little better with putting more of my thoughts together and adding that a loyalist was nice to me like I wrote in my experience with a loyalist. Maybe I could've added that I had an experience with a Patriot. That way maybe more people would see my point. A lot of people said

that loyalists did something bad and patriots did good things, I think more people should be loyalists. Almost everyone in our class (except Frankelly, Cheyenne and I) were Patriots.
~~Atok~~ A lot of people
only did that because others did. I'm glad Martha picked a few
of us to be different,
because then everyone
would be the same
and it would be boring.
In my opinion, I
think that the town

meeting could have gone better. More people could ~~be~~ have disagreed.
More people could have said more than
"because the loyalists were mean to me." We could have had a better ~~class~~ Town meeting.
