

Name Afiya

Social Studies Final Project: Will you sign the Declaration of Independence or not?

Part two:

You are still debating whether or not you will sign. There are many reasons to remain loyal to Britain and there are many reasons to rebel and become your own nation. List as many reasons as you can for both sides in the columns below. Then, in your SSNB, select the strongest reason from each side and say more about it.

Reasons to remain loyal

- Get perfectain From England
- Paint, seeds, Food
- People may loose love ones
- Rebell^{British} would hurt us are ^{if} British wins than might raise it
- Other people would not try to rule america

Reasons to rebel

- Get liberty
- have our own ~~gun~~ house with out redcoats in our house
- be able to vote
- have more say in things
- do not have to listen to King George

Name A. Dylan

Social Studies Final Project: Will you sign the Declaration of Independence or not?

Part two:

You are still debating whether or not you will sign. There are many reasons to remain loyal to Britain and there are many reasons to rebel and become your own nation. List as many reasons as you can for both sides in the columns below. Then, in your SSNB, select the strongest reason from each side and say more about it.

Reasons to remain loyal

- I have protection of the Navy
- Won't be able to import regular stuff from England
- My brother lives in England I will lose contact with him
- We will have a government of mindless violent bull
- We will not die

Reasons to rebel

- The British army is at it's weakest ever.
- We will stop the taxation without representation
- We can't vote
- They sleep in our homes
- The writs of assistance

Be a rebel

5/2/5

The bloody british do not give us a chance to be free and do what they want us to do for them. Now do you want live your life like that.

So I want freedom from the bloody british so I could whatever I please to do. I want to live my life making decides of my own not going by decides made by you life evil scumes.

Tashana

05/2/05

Will you sign the Declaration of Independence or not?

Part one:
The British has come!

June 8th 1772, I was I was taking care of patriots for there last day at my tavern. Working hard. When it was Midday, the ~~next~~ patriots left and payed me (of course).
So they payed me 12 shillings.
Then Some British

came to my tavern. Since I needed money I had to ~~let~~ let them in. So I have only let them stay for 3 days. I, my family and servants worked so hard then we did for anybody else. Scrub there shoes, get them a cop etc. I can

Will you sign the Declaration of Independence or not?

Part one:

My people the patriots has saved my life.

July 4th 1776 Patriots has saved my life. I was just getting crops for my tavern. Store after store I was buying crops. Once I was at my tavern, I have heard a message from a messenger and they had said Thomas Jefferson made the Declaration of Independence. He is a patriot. Once everybody has sign we are free from England. I was so glad ~~at~~ ran to my friends ~~at~~ Mr. Carter's tavern and other patriots (too) were at his tavern having a meeting.

Tashana

5/3/05

Will you sign the Declaration of Independence or Not?

Part 2:
Rebel or not that is the question

I say we should rebel because we don't get to vote for anybody in parliament. King George rules over England and us. So if his country gets to vote and he rules over them, we should be able to vote because he rules over us.

We should go to war because he is not giving us the rights to do anything England can do. We should have the same respect King George gives England. That includes voting.
Maybe the patriots and rest of us don't like parliament's rules and how much taxes we

Sajmit

5/3/05

Reason To Rebel

My strongest reason to Rebel is that King George the III has told our slaves and servants to fight against us, and he has encouraged the Indians to attack us. I think this is a sick thing to do because to some people their slaves and servants are family because they could of taken care of them instead of mistreating them, and King George the III told them to fight against you.

H. J. F. P.
Representy
Rebut

As reason that we should rebel ~~it~~ is that because we don't get a fair word in Parliament because we don't have a representative in parliament. ~~in~~ When parliament wants to make a choice for us we should get ~~aword~~ a word in edge wise. So because of such manner we should rebel.

5/3/05

Part Two:

Reasons to Rebel

I do not have many reasons to rebel. But I have a few. My strongest one is that I have a chance to run away if my owner doesn't watch me. If he only pays attention to the war, he won't notice me run away, but yet that is a foolish opinion. My owner will WATCH me fight. He will watch me and I will die.

Part 1

LOYALIST

5-2-05

I had just come home to my 6 kids and one on the way. I had worked overtime because Mrs. Baglehamis Cloes were due on Wednesday and it was Monday. Monday at the Shop the day was a normal not so busy day we had a good 5 to 6 customers in our stor. My 13 year old boy had come to bring me my lunch that I had left at home because he had thought I left it and I did so he brought it to me out of consideration.

I had come home tired from a double shift at the Shop and it was 8:00pm and I was tired so I shout the door behind me. All the kids were asleep and my husband too. I had went to bed and woke up to a hard bang on the door it sounded like if someone was dieing but unfortunately I wish that was the case. I had opined the door an inch or 2 and that filthy loyalist came in uninvited and said that the oldest boy had to get out of the bed and let him sleep there I could not say anything so I called my oldest down and said that he need to sleep on the floor in his brothers

I don't w. i. never forget that man's face

Devoirs de cours

Sajmit

5/3/05

Reason To Remain Loyal

My strongest reason to remain loyal to King George the III is if we Rebel Britain will not sell all the equipment we need for our jobs and for our homes and families. Some of the things we need from Britain, are: tea, coffee, water, food, crops, tools, so we do out jobs and fix our homes, furniture → beds → couches → drawers. If we remain loyal we could get all the things we need.

Will you sign the Declaration of Independence or not?

Part 2^o

Patriots, Rebels, Navy, slaves... oh, AAh Loyalist

Why be a Loyalist you ask.
Well many reasons, but the best of all, we are or we will still have protection from the strongest army in the world
"the British Navy". If we stay a Loyalist, we will be protected by the Navy that rides on the boat with us. Without the Navy protection we won't be protected. The Navy helps us transfer from one place to another. The Navy could ~~per~~ protect us for anybody who's against us or turned against us. They can protect us by 5/3/05

Part Two:

Reasons To Stay
Loyal

Because I am an African slave, I won't be able to be freed if I sign the DoI. My master will get freed, but not I. My master wouldn't even free me because he wants me to be his slave. He's mean to me. When I asked him before if he would ever free me, even if he got his freedom, he answered, "No. Well, yes. I free all my slaves." "When?" I asked "when they die!"

Remain loyal

5/2/15

We should stay with the British because they scare the other people who want to take over things. So if we have a good navy that scares other people then our country is good for us because then we will always be safe and not in danger. So yes you should stay with the British so you would always be safe.

To Be LOYAL 5/2/05

We should be loyal because we won't die. ~~If~~ If we don't like the British then ~~we~~ they can just come and kill us. (Like they did to people who tried to fight back) If we stay loyal and pay the taxes and do what they tell us we won't die. Think either almost be killed or live. I say live.

To Be Rebel

How can we choose a fair government if we can't vote? We have been treated unfairly because of King George and parliament. I know I don't want ~~to~~ to live my life my life like that!