

Our questions about lights in vehicles

March 9, 2006

1. How are lights made?
2. What are those materials made from?
3. How do they put the lights in?
4. How do they open the light to put stuff inside?
5. How do you turn the lights on?
6. Why are lights so bright?
7. Where are the light switches in the subway?
8. Do they put lights in at the beginning, middle, or end of the job of making vehicles?
9. Do all cars have the same kinds of lights?
10. Are the lights made out of glass?
11. How do the lights go on?
12. How do they put the switches on?
13. Who invented car lights and the materials?
14. When we close the door, how do the lights go off?
15. Who invented the light switches?
16. Do the cars front and back light have bulbs?

How can we find answers to our questions about lights?

1. Look in books and magazines.
2. Ask people.
3. Interview people.
4. Ask an expert.
5. Ask an expert in our class.
6. Observe a real car.
7. Go to the library.
8. Ask Steve, the science teacher
9. Ask an expert's daughter or son.
10. Make observations.
11. Go to the Auto Repair Shop.
12. Find non-fiction poems about lights.
13. Do role-plays.
14. Go on field trips.